CURRICULUM VITAE

Paola Giubergia

Professional experience

2001 - TO DATE

External Relations Manager

Ersel

Organises exhibitions, events and sponsorships for Ersel. Established as Studio Giubergia in 1936, the first mutual funds company authorised to operate Italy, Ersel is now a group that manages over 18 billion euros of customer assets, with a staff of around 300 people in Italian and foreign offices; a unique model of continuity and innovation in Italy.

Principally in Turin, Ersel has for many years been a high profile protagonist in the art world, contributing to events organised by other institutions as well as participating in projects from the moment of conception. Even its usual sponsorships involve more than sporadic activities for temporary visibility, but are always protracted collaborations with the highly prestigious entities and organisations integrated into the group's overall strategy. In 2003, when it moved its Turin offices to the historic Ceriana building at Piazza Solferino 11, Ersel created a space to host exhibitions and events, often in collaboration with major national and international organisations.

2005 - TO DATE

Director

Paideia Foundation

Founded in 1993 by the Giubergia and Argentero families, Paideia is now one of the most active non-profit organisations in Piedmont supporting children in difficulty and working to improve the lives of children and families living in difficult situations, promoting specific initiatives and fostering the development of effective and innovative social interventions.

In 2018, it inaugurated the Paideia Centre, 3,000 square metres of space to assist families with children with disabilities, childhood rehabilitation activities, sports activities, courses and workshops open to all.
